Park Square is a mid-sized professional theatre producing a perfect balance of familiar favorites and fresh new stories in an intimate 340-seat theater. Each season includes six subscription productions and two full productions created especially for young audiences. Founded in 1974 in Lower-town's Park Square Court Building, the Theatre relocated in 1995 to its current home in the Seventh Place Theatre of the Historic Hamm Building in Downtown Saint Paul. The Theatre holds the third-largest subscriber base of any theater in the Twin Cities, and the largest overall audience for a theater of its type. Among its peers, Park Square offers the most extensively developed education program, with in-depth services reaching more than 25,000 area students annually.
